Creepers Rehabilitating Understanding

Sonni Schwinn

Representatives from the State's Department of Transportation, His-Society, Department of and Recreation, Attorney's Office, the Governor's Office, the owners of The Heber Railroad, Rep. Beverly and the Wasatch County Commission, left a meeting last week apparently in total agreement and commitments to the road and future of The

• The railroad right-of-way is owned by the state and improvement should not be the County's responsibility;

• A private business, The Creeper, will directly benefit from the repairs and it would be fair for the County to help only one business;

• And the County can't spare the labor and equipment because it has a contract to complete repairs on a road in the Strawberry area, as well as responsibilities to citizens.
